

East Palestine Police Department

Monthly Activity and Community Policing Report – January 2023

Ptl. Sattler continues the SRO program for the 2022/2023 school year.

Officers provided security for the home basketball games.

The waterproofing has been completed and two offices are being constructed in the basement.

We are awaiting the award announcement for OCJS grant funding which will allow us to recruit up to two (2) uncertified police officer candidates. If received, this grant funding will pay the costs associated with the Police Academy.

All cruisers have been upfitted with dash cameras.

The 2023 Temporary Holding Facility (jail) inspection was submitted and approved by ODRC.
