

East Palestine Division of Police

Monthly Activity and Community Policing Report – September 2026

Dispatcher Shannon Campy was promoted to the newly created position of Dispatch Supervisor within the Communications Center. She will be responsible for overseeing daily dispatch operations, handling all scheduling matters, developing dispatcher training programs, and creating continuing education materials.

Officers continued to provide security at home football games and cross-country sporting events. Officers also provided security for the Kevin Baird Music Festival event in the Park, which had no reported incidents and was a huge success.

Ptl. Reed successfully completed the 16-hour “Simunitions Instructor Training” course in Painesville, OH that trains law enforcement to safely design, implement, and run reality-based, force-on-force training using reduced-energy, non-lethal Simunition ammunition.

The Division of Police proudly supports the East Palestine Bulldog Band by having paw prints painted in front of our entrance (pictures attached).

Officers continued to work on the mandated Continuing Professional Training (CPT) for 2026 through the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy (OPOTA) and completed the division’s annual Firearms Qualifications.
